SHOELESS, HATLESS, MAN FOUND Accomplice Hinted in Girl's Murder Case

TWO BULLETS FOUND IN ROOM INQUEST SHOWS

Jury Finds Girl Guilty But Coroner
Says Her Story of Crime
Impossible
GIRL BREAKS UNDER STRAIN
Father and Brother, Reconciled,
Pledge to Assist Accused
Murderess

(By Universal Service)
SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 17.—Doubt, the possibility that the girl may not have been alone in the slaying of her mother, that some hand may even have held the gun, was injected with startling unexpectedness into the Dorothy Ellingson case today at the Coroner's inquest.

Although the jury brought a verdict decreeing that sufficient evidence had been adduced to warrant a charge of murder against the sixteen-year-old girl, the same verdict drew attention to discrepancies between the girl's confession, the police theories and the actual evidence.

Coroner Leland himself declared it was impossible for Dorothy Ellingson to have stood in the bedroom doorway and shot her mother from behind as the elder woman leaned over lacing her shoes.

"Her confession is the only thing you have," he said to the detectives, "and as to that, I have known confessions to be made to shield another."

Family Reconciled
Shuddering, crumpled in her chair eyes and ears covered to shut out the merciless inquisition of the inquest, the girl herself refused to take the stand. However, she settled the heated controversy of her defense by naming Public Defender Frank J. Egan, as her attorney. Her father and brother, relenting from their previous stand of refusing to aid her, had retained another attorney but the girl insisted upon Egan and her choice prevailed.

The agreement upon Egan was the occasion for a touching reconciliation between the father and brother and the girl in her cell after the inquest. Both men, broken and in tears, clasped the unnerved girl in their arms and promised to stand by her.

During the inquest the father, Joseph Ellingson, had walked down from the stand and brushed by the girl's knees in the crowded room without a word or glance of recognition. He had testified that she was mentally sound and that there was no doubt in his mind that she had slain her mother.

Two Shots Theory
Immediately Detective Dulles injected an alternative theory of a second shot, which was contradicted by a previous statement of the girl and testimony of a neighbor who took the stand.

Except from the gray cat that ran startled from the bedroom on the night the woman was found stretched across the bed, there was no known witness to the murder, the detective explained.

"But," said Dulles, "two bullets were found, one on the floor after it had struck the wall, the other in the deceased's brain."

Difference in Weight
Dr. Strange was at once instructed by the coroner to weigh these bullets.

"BIG" MUNN, EX-COLLEGE ATHLETE, BEATS LEWIS, IS WRESTLING CHAMPION

Wayne H. (Big) Munn, former University of Nebraska athlete and football star, won the worlds heavy-weight wrestling championship by defeating Ed (Strangler) Lewis at Kansas City. Munn won the first and third falls, losing the second on a foul when he picked Lewis up bodily and tossed him from the ring. Munn is probably the biggest man in athletics, standing 6 feet 7 inches and weighing 258 pounds. His first professional appearance was as a boxer but he deserted that sport for the wrestling game after being coached by Joe Stecher, former champion.

MAN SUFFERS BROKEN RIBS IN AUTO CRASH

C. R. Beatty of 350 Twenty-first street, business agent for the Buildings Trade Council, had three ribs broken when his Ford coupe ran into a car driven by Sam Mathis on Macdonald avenue, between Twenty-second and Twenty-third streets yesterday noon.

Mathis, who was driving a Chevrolet touring car, started to turn from the curb in front of Powell's restaurant when Beatty crashed into the fender of his car. The impact turned Beatty's car over on its side, breaking the glass in one of the doors. The car was quickly righted.

Beatty was taken to the Emergency hospital, where examination disclosed three broken ribs. After being dressed Beatty was taken to his home. Dr. C. L. Abbott was the attending physician.

Elks Lodge Plans Memorial Service

Memorial services will be held for A. S. Orrey, who was buried in Martinez, yesterday, by the Elks lodge during their meeting on Tuesday night. Tom Johnson, Martinez attorney, will deliver an eulogy.

The deceased was a member of the Elks, and one of its most popular members.

MILLIONS HOPE TO VIEW SUN'S TOTAL ECLIPSE

Sun Will Appear Nearly Blotted
Out In Many of Largest Cities
ON SATURDAY, JANUARY 24
New York and Chicago In Path of Darkness When Sun
Disappears

By ISABEL M. LEWIS.
United States Naval Observatory.
The eclipse of the sun next Saturday morning, which will be total within a narrow strip of country one hundred miles or so wide and about twelve hundred miles long, extending from Northern Minnesota, across Northern Wisconsin, Michigan, the great lakes, a small part of Canada, Northern Pennsylvania, New York, Connecticut, parts of New Jersey, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, most of Long Island and the island south of Cape Cod, promises to be one of the most interesting in the long history of illustrious eclipses.

Among the many towns where the eclipse will be total are included Duluth, Toronto and upper part of New York City.

NINETY-FIVE PER CENT
The maximum eclipse will be ninety-five per cent or more at all points in the United States and Canada within two hundred miles or so of the path of total eclipse, the amount of the eclipse becoming greater the nearer one approaches to the path of totality.

A partial eclipse varying inversely in magnitude with distance from the path of total eclipse will be observable throughout the central and southern States and as far west as some of the Mountain States, also over Central and Eastern Canada, Mexico and Central America to the extreme northern part of South America, the West Indies, the North Atlantic ocean, Iceland, the British Isles, Western Europe and North-western Africa.

NOT VISIBLE HERE
The eclipse will not be visible on the Pacific Coast or generally west of the Rockies, and the sun will rise more or less eclipse in the Central and North Central States.

It will be noticed that this eclipse will be either total or very nearly so in the most thickly populated part of the United States and more over the path of totality will pass over, or very close, to some of the leading universities, colleges and observatories in the country. Several including those of the University of Toronto, Cornell University, Vassar College, Columbia University, Yale University and Wesleyan University, lie directly in the path. The Wesleyan University observatory at Middletown, Conn., has become the Mecca for many scientific observers from some of the largest observatories in the country outside of the path including astronomers from Mount Wilson, Cal. Many of these observers have brought their own instruments with them and are preparing to make extensive observations of the eclipse.

Unique in History
There are several factors that are contributing to make this one of the most interesting total solar eclipses that has ever occurred in the United States. Not only will it

Lions Club of Richmond Joins Drive Against Auto Death Toll

The Lions Club of Richmond is working in conjunction with all other Lions Clubs in California and Nevada on a definite campaign to cut down the appalling loss of life caused by careless and reckless auto driving.

The unique windshield sticker that is being distributed by the members of the Lions Club will be used universally throughout this campaign, and it is hoped that all motorists will assist in this movement for public safety. These windshield stickers can be obtained from any member of the Lions Club in this city.

Safety Campaign Aimed
Herbert Hoover, Secretary of Commerce, has called a meeting of all the Presidents of International Service Clubs and other leaders in welfare movements, to enlist their aid in a nation wide safety campaign for safe auto driving. This meeting will be held during the last week in January.

The city and county authorities will co-operate in this movement and citizens generally are commending the Lions Club for instituting this worth while movement for civic welfare.

Entire Nation Aroused
The entire nation is aroused over the menace to the public and particularly to the school children from reckless, and in some cases, thoughtless drivers. It is agreed that one life saved is worth all the effort that is named in a campaign of this kind.

It is announced that the Lions Club seeks the co-operation of the public generally. Motorists who find a sticker on their windshield should let it remain as their contribution to this most laudable cause.

Scoutmasters Of County in Meet

The Scoutmaster's Association of Contra Costa county held a meeting in Martinez last night in the grammar school auditorium, which was followed by a social affair attended by the scoutmasters and their wives and officers of the Contra Costa Boy Scout Council.

pass over a more densely populated part of our country than any past eclipse, but it is the first total eclipse to be visible in any part of New York State or New England since the year 1806. The path of this eclipse did not reach as far south as New York City. In fact the coming total eclipse, so far as the writer has been able to determine from a study of old eclipse paths, is the first one to pass over the present city of New York, though of course not its site.

Also for the first time in history dirigibles will be used in the observation of the eclipse. It seems peculiarly fitting that the dirigible Los Angeles, which is to carry observers of the United States naval observatory and others to a height of several thousand feet to obtain observations of this eclipse and particularly to study the solar corona, should be inflated with the gas helium which was discovered in the sun and observed in the solar prominences during total solar eclipses many years before it was discovered on earth.

YOUTH IS FOUND, WILL NOT EAT, FORGETS NAME

Wandering Aimlessly About Barrett Avenue, Scantily Clad,
Man is Found
SOCKS IN GOOD CONDITION
Young Man Thinks He Came From
Oakland But Can't Remember Name

Minus his shoes, hat and coat, a man about 25 years of age, apparently a foreigner, was taken into custody by the police last night, at 6:30 o'clock, near the corner of Fifteenth and Barrett avenue. The man was wandering about aimlessly, the police report.

The man was taken to the station where he was questioned as to his identity and the reason for his appearance. He could give no definite answer as to his name. He said that he had forgotten it.

CAME FROM OAKLAND

When asked where he had been staying, he said that he had been in Oakland, for about two weeks. Other than that he seems to have no recollection, police say.

He was offered something to eat, but refused, declaring that he was not hungry. He was taken to a room and allowed to sleep. Police awakened him about midnight, but could learn nothing further.

From his appearance the man is evidently a laborer, the police declared. When taken into custody, his socks were in fairly good condition, showing that he could not have walked very far without his shoes.

Lumber on Auto Strikes, Injures Man on Sidewalk

Will Snelling, signal operator of fire station No. 2 of the Richmond Fire Department, was given a bad shaking up yesterday when a Ford touring car, driven by Gustava H. Trolese of 708 Twenty-second street, from which some two by four pieces of lumber were extending out from the right side of the car, struck him as he stood on the curb at the corner of Fifth street and Macdonald avenue, at 8 o'clock yesterday morning.

Trolese turned south on Fifth street from Macdonald avenue, and struck Snelling as he was standing on the curb. It is claimed by witnesses that Trolese did not have any red flag or any kind of sign to warn people of the lumber extending out from the car.

Snelling was taken to his home immediately after the accident, where examination showed that he had suffered no serious injury.

KANSAS GOVERNOR WHO IS ACCUSED WITH SON IN PARDON BRIBERY SCANDAL

A warrant charging Governor M. Davis with bribery in connection with the granting of a pardon to Fred Pollman, of La Cygne, Kan., a banker convicted of forgery, was issued the day his term of office expired. It is alleged that Davis's son Russell got $1250, delivered the pardon and stepped into a trap that had been set for him. Davis was the second Democratic Governor in the history of Kansas. He was the State's favorite son last June at the Democratic National Convention and was mentioned prominently as a possibility when the Smith-McAdoo deadlock broke. Later he was talked of to take second place on the national ticket.

STOCK BUYERS SUE DOBLES IN RECOVERY SUIT

The most voluminous complaint in a civil suit ever filed in San Francisco appeared in the Superior Court yesterday. The complaint contains more than 500,000 words, and is against the Doble Steam Motors corporation, its officials and stock salesmen, and asks for recovery of $199,490 it alleged to have been paid by 481 purchasers of Doble stock.

Simultaneously with the filing of the bulky complaint by Attorney Charles N. Douglas, representing a large number of Doble stock buyers, who have organized themselves into a company known as the Cox Subscribers' Association, the Sheriff of Alameda county was given a writ of attachment to serve on Doble officials to prevent them from disposing of their plant at Emeryville.

The defendants named in the suit included Abner Doble, W. A. Doble, Jr., W. A. Doble, Sr., Warren Doble, Harold E. Haven, officials of the corporation, as well as F. G. Cox and W. E. Barnard, who were fiscal agents for the Doble corporation in the flotation of stock.

After alleging that the defendants sold stock without a permit from the State Corporation Department, the complaint charges that the Doble and Haven "colluded and conspired" and "entered into a secret agreement" whereby Cox and the other defendants "did take the sum of $100,000 in addition to the lawful commission" permitted by law and "appropriated the same to their own use and benefit."

SHIP WATCHMAN DISAPPEARS AT ALAMEDA WHARF

Former Richmond Laundry Man
Vanishes While On Watchmans Duty
ESTUARY PIRATES BLAMED
Blood Stained Iron Bar Found On Deck of Ship Is Only Clue

Mystery descended suddenly Friday night upon the silent deck of the idle Shipping Board freighter Elkridge, tied up at Government Island between Oakland and Alameda, when John McCracken, 77, watchman on board, strangely vanished.

McCracken, according to the report, was a resident of Richmond several years ago, and was at one time engaged in the laundry business here. He had a room in Twenty-third avenue, Oakland, which he occupied when not on board the vessel, where he had been employed for some time.

Vanishes in Darkness
According to the report of the strange disappearance the light in the starboard chains went out about 7 o'clock and fell into the water alongside. Hails to the vessel were unanswered and men hastening to investigate found that the aged watchman had vanished in the darkness.

A pool of blood discolored the deck beside the vanished light. An other pool lay beneath the electric switchboard and investigation showed that four fuses had been blown out.

A trail of blood led the searchers across the deck to the port rail, where there was another red stain. Nowhere was there a sign of McCracken. The only trace of his presence aboard the ship was his hat, over which the searchers stumbled near the starboard chains.

Oilier Gives Alarm

The first alarm was given by Tom Ryan, an oiler, McCracken's sole companion on board. Ryan had gone ashore a few minutes before to get his dinner and go to a Chinese laundry. At no time, he says, was he out of count of the ship. He heard no shot or sound.

McCracken, like other government watchmen, was paid off at 6 o'clock in the afternoon and the theory of the police is that he was either assaulted by some one who knew this fact or suffered a hemorrhage and fell overboard. The water alongside is 18 feet deep and Battalion Chief Max Dorman of the Oakland fire department, ordered a crew of men to grapple for the body.

Blood Stained Bar Found
Although Oakland police dragged the estuary in the vicinity of the vessel for several hours Friday night and yesterday, the body was not found.

A blood-stained iron bar, found on the deck of the Shipping Board freighter offered police the only clue yesterday to the mysterious disappearance.

With this as a basis, supplemented by information from officers of the vessel that the harbor is a "nest of dope pirates," Oakland police believed that McCracken met his death at the hands of a dope addict, who murdered him with robbery as a motive.

McCracken, it was revealed yesterday, received his monthly wages on the afternoon preceding his disappearance.

DOGS ON AUTOMOBILES

The Oregon Humane Society is sending out to the newspapers in all the states copy of following bill to require protection of dogs carried on automobiles. Here is the full text of the law:

Section 1. It shall be unlawful for any person to carry a dog upon the hood, fender, running board or other external part of any automobile or truck, unless the same shall be protected by a frame work, carrier, or other device sufficient to keep any such animal from falling from the said automobile.

Section 2. Any person who shall violate the provisions of this act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than one hundred ($100.00) dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for a period of not more than six months or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Section 3. Justices of the Peace, district courts, county courts, and all other courts, having jurisdictions as justices of the peace, shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the circuit courts of all prosecutions under this act.

TEACHERS' SALARIES

We usually get what we pay for, whether we buy teaching services or potatoes. For either article, even when there is a large supply, a fair price has to be paid for superior goods.

We want teachers of superior innate ability, trained, cultured, traveled, full of initiative and self-respect, with a broad outlook and understanding of life so that they may interpret life correctly for our boys and girls, says Margaret M. Alltucker in The Journal of the E. E. A. We can have such teachers when we are willing to pay for them. We will pay the necessary price only when we understand the value of the teacher's service to individual and community life—when we appreciate the worth of the teacher.

When we buy teaching services, to a large extent, we buy our children's outlook on life. The teacher who is trained in civic affairs gives more to her pupils than is contained in the civics textbook. The teacher who reads the best professional books and magazines brings to her classroom invaluable teaching helps so that her pupils learn more in less time. The teacher who has a standard of living which permits her to live in comfortable quarters brings to her classroom vigor, enthusiasm, self-respect, and initiative. To succeed, the teacher must have the respect of the community; and it is a part of human nature not to respect that which is purchased too cheaply.

Professional training, travel, books, and magazines, a standard of living conducive to physical and mental efficiency require money. Teachers possess these only when they are paid adequate salaries. Teachers, when dissatisfied, can shift to other lines of work, but the law compels children to stay in school. The welfare of boys and girls should be the motive for increasing teachers' salaries. The important point is this: Our children and society are the losers when teachers are poorly prepared for their work.

AMERICANS ON INTERNATIONAL DUTY

The importance of the part taken by Americans in the work of making the international adjustments required by the Dawes plan is reflected in the complete list of the personnel selected for the task.

The post occupied by Semour Parker Gilbert, successor to Owen D. Young, although the most important is only one of the many held by Americans. He is assisted by Rufus C. Dawes, Henry M. Robinson, Thomas L. Robinson, Leon Fraser, G. P. Auld and R. B. Wigglesworth, all Americans, Joseph E. Sterett, another American, is a member of the transfer committee. Gates W. McGarrath, another American, is a member of the general council of the Reichsbank and a member of the board of directors of the bank for industrial bonds.

According to the terms of the agreement, Americans, in several cases, must be members of the various arbitral bodies that will be created in the event of disputes. It is provided that an American shall be chairman of the arbitration board on deliveries in kind, of the board that might be called into being after the accumulation of five billion gold marks in Germany by the transfer committee, and of the board to adjudicate cases of flagrant default.

Thomas Nelson Perkins is the American selected to vote on the reparation commission.

Despite the fact that the United States has no official connection with the Dawes plan of adjustment the carrying out of the plan will be dependent in no small measure upon American effort and supervision.

The man who borrows money in the days of prosperity will not have to borrow trouble in the days of adversity; he will have all he needs.

Even if the world does owe you a living, there is no reason why you should sit down on the stool of do nothing and depend on some one else collecting it for you.

No one ever loses by helping others unless they have made an error in the selection of those they help.

Women Must Have Handbags To Make Up For The Absence Of Pockets.
It may be one of the inconveniences of the present fashions for women that they must carry their loose and baggy places in their clothes. There is simply nothing to do about it but carry a bag. In the Directory period, when women once before wore clothes that were straight and scant, there was little room for pockets, and women took to the reticule.

There are all sorts of bags now, adays, but certainly smartly dressed women regard the flat, rather large envelope as by all means the smartest possible selection. Even for the evening the flat envelope is chosen. Sometimes these envelopes are made of gorgeous metal brocade and sometimes of intricately embroidered silk.

WHERE IT STARTED

THE HIGH SILK HAT

The top-hat was invented by John Hetherington, a haberdasher in the Strand, London. The first one was worn by him January 15, 1797; it was designed simply to create a novelty. His appearance with it on his head nearly caused a riot, and he was arrested, the charge stating that women had fainted at the sight of the hat. He was bound in $5,000 surety for his future good behavior.

WISE AND OTHERWISE

IN THE KITCHEN

The Closets

THE modern kitchen has fewer closets than the old-time kitchen. In fact, the unlighted, unventilated kitchen closet is passing. About the worst kitchen closet I ever saw was in a renovated old Colonial mansion, where the architect who had made a beautiful job of the living quarters of the house, had seen fit to make the cellar stairs come up into a corner closet that was used for the kitchen utensils. What is more, there was no door between the stairs and the closet, so that dust rising from the stairs to the closet invariably settled on the utensils. Perhaps it would be architect's plans were always left to some woman collaborator. One kind of closet that used to be found in every kitchen was a sink closet—a jet black, always damp, usually ill-smelling nook beneath the sink, where most housewives kept a bath brick and various scouring paraphernalia. Thank fortune, this closet passed out with open kitchen plumbing.

MADE FROM COLD LAMB

A little cold lamb, and a few slices of bacon, one egg, a very little white sauce, four ounces of flour, pepper and salt, one ounce of butter, frying fat. First make a batter with the flour, butter, one gill of tepid water, and the well-beaten white of egg. Let this stand while you prepare the meat. Mince the lamb finely, season it well with pepper and salt, and moisten with a very little white sauce. Place some on each slice of bacon and roll up. Now dip in flour and then place them in the batter. Prepare a deep pan of boiling fat, then lift each roll out with plenty of batter, adhering, and fry brown.

Minister to Talk On Girl Murder

"The Unsafety of Human Life" will be the subject of the talk of Rev. F. A. Woten, pastor of the First Christian church, tonight. In his lecture he will answer such questions as "Should Dorothy Ellingson Hang?" Is she to blame for the murder of her mother or is San Francisco? Or are our courts, with their laxness, at fault, or is it the "Jazz Age" in which we are living? A solo entitled "Abide With Me" will be rendered by Miss Helen Morehouse.

TWO AUTOS COLLIDE

Two automobiles driven by E. C. New of Point Richmond and W. Dyson of 381 Willow street, Oakland, collided at the corner of Second street and Cutting boulevard at 4:45 o'clock yesterday afternoon, according to report made to the police. No one was hurt, and the machines were only slightly damaged.

WHOS WHO AND WHATS HAPPENED

CYNTHIA LELAND's husband, Jim, has gone to Honolulu shortly after their marriage, following a misunderstanding with his wife, and has taken his mother with him, leaving Cynthia to face the disapproval of her sister-in-law, LOUELLA, and all her world. Cynthia turns to "BETTY" MALCOLM, leader of the town's gay set, and accepts the friendship of NOEL GARDNER, the town's black sheep, going with them to a mid-winter house party at Cedella mountain cabin.

TODAY'S INSTALLMENT

XLII—A SHOCK FOR LOUELLA

"N OW, we'll go straight to Stanley's office," announced Louella, as Cynthia followed her in the living room.

"I've been thinking," Louella said, and he said that he'd go to Noel Gardner's office and get your stock from Noel. And, Cynthia, I'm going to take you to him soon. So Stanley was eager to take a hand in it. The telephone rang before Cynthia could reply, and Louella murmured, "That must be Stanley," hurried to answer it. After a moment's talk, however, she turned to Cynthia, who was in a bad mood.

"It's Noel Gardner," she said. "You don't want to talk to him, do you? I suppose by just saying to ask if it's all right to let Stanley take the stock."

"Tell him it's all right," said Cynthia wearily. But evidently Noel was insistent, finally Louella turned the receiver down on the hook impatiently.

"He says he'll be at Stanley's office," she announced, uneasily. "He was quite rude; acted as if I'd kept you from coming to the telephone." Louella chattered gaily as they went downstairs and drove to her husband's office. Cynthia, staring out of the window, wondered if this change in her sister-in-law was wholly due to the desire to buy back the stock which Cynthia had bought from Madame Leland through Noel Gardner. What a simper Louella must think her!

Stanley was waiting for them at his office, as was Noel Gardner. Noel took Cynthia aside at once. "Cynthia, is it true that you're going to sell this stock in the subdivision back to Mrs. Leland?" he demanded.

"Yes." "But—but didn't you understand what I told you this morning that I've sold that land for a factory site, and that the stock has more than doubled in value as a result?" Cynthia caught a glimpse of Louella's face over his shoulder. It was crimson. She smiled, of course. Louella hadn't supposed that she knew.

"Yes, I understood," Cynthia told Noel. "But I'm selling it for what I paid for it. Madame Leland wants it back."

Sour Cream Biscuits: One pint flour, one-half teaspoon soda, one teaspoon salt, one teaspoon cream tartar. Stir all together. Add one teaspoon lard, one cup sour cream or enough to mix soft. Cut one inch thick and bake 15 minutes.

Stuffed Potatoes: Choose large smooth potatoes, bake until done; remove from the oven and cut a round piece off the top of each; take out the inside of the potato, being careful not to break the skin. Set aside the empty skins with the pieces cut from the tops; mash the potato; season with butter, pepper and salt, and moisten with milk or cream; put into a saucepan on the stove, and when hot, add a well beaten egg for every six potatoes; stir all together thoroughly, fill the skins, put on the tops and return to the oven for a few minutes. Send to the table hot.

Grapefruit Snow Pudding: Wet 6 tablespoons cornstarch with 6 of cold water and cook till clear. Meantime mix 3-4 cup each of grapefruit juice and sugar, the grated rind of 1 orange and 2 saltspoons salt. Add to hot cornstarch; let cook another minute; and pour upon the stiff whipped whites of 3 eggs, beating while pouring. Turn into wet mold, let harden and when chilled serve with custard sauce.

THE YOUNG LADY ACROSS THE WAY

EAST BAY WATER DISTRICT WILL REDUCE FORCES

The working field force employed by the East Bay Municipal Utility district will be reduced by sixteen men on February 1, because of shortage of funds, it was announced at the meeting of the board of directors in Oakland last night.

E. C. Mills, division engineer, one of the chief aides to Arthur P. Davis, the chief engineer and general manager, will be one of those who will go. Davis said the action will abolish all field parties except one and that this party will be moved from place to place as the need arises to keep the office force provided with data necessary to the preparations of plans and estimates for the Mokelumne river project.

READJUSTMENT NECESSARY

Readjustment of the affairs of the district was necessary, it was said. In order to keep the work going without incurring a deficit during the remainder of the fiscal year, after July 1, the Utility District will again realize funds from tax money.

Davis reported that the tax money the field and in the office has been actively carried on during the past month and that he hopes to have preliminary plans in shape to call a conference of the consultants in this city some time in June to consider them.

MAY AMEND STATE LAW

Attorney W. J. Locke reported that he is preparing certain amendments to the state law under which the district operates, to be submitted to the State Legislature. One amendment aims to speed the work of the district in acquiring right of way.

A budget covering the operations of the district for the remainder of the fiscal year will probably be adopted at the first meeting in February, it was said at last night's meeting.

PURSE REPORTED LOST

A purse containing a $20 bill and cards, was reported as being lost by Oscar Long of 1810 Gay St. avenue, to the police last night. Gaynor believes that he lost the articles on the street.

MOTOR TRIPS ABROAD The Most Famous Cathedral FOURTH OF A SERIES OF TRAVEL TALKS

IT IS getting increasingly common for American motorists to travel from Brussels to Paris by motor through the battle area of Belgium and France. The roads are excellent and the points of interest innumerable.

The most interesting route is to go from Brussels to Louvain where may be seen the famous Cathedral Church of St. Pierre and the Hotel de Ville, dating from 1448, an exquisite specimen of 15th Century Gothic. During the world war the Cathedral withstood a German bombardment every day for four years and one month. From Louvain the route follows to Namur where is the famous Cathedral of St. Aubin which dates from 1151. Then come Dinant, Givet, Rocroi, Bethel and finally the famous city of Rheims. In few cities is it possible to see today what war actually meant to a peaceful city.

Travelling from Brussels to Paris by motor it is a good plan to spend a night at Rheims and then in the morning proceed to such historic places as Chateau Thierry and Meaux. Paris can be reached easily by dinner time.

Pretentious Bill Is Offered Today at The California

A pretentious Stage Production under the title of "Crowland" heads the Variety section of the double bill at the California theatre today. When the curtain rises the audience sees the Sheaves of wheat, The Pumpkins, The Scare crowd, and many other things that are met with on a farm. After the opening pantomime the principals offer a neat song and dance presentation that features novelty however is the key of the production the like of which is seldom seen on the variety stage.

Milare with a number of chieftains and hats holds his own with any other exponent of the art of Jugglery. He works quickly and surely and his tricks are difficult and a little out of the ordinary.

"Three Spades of Joy" are The Cliffords a colored trio, with a wealth of personality and a peppy singing and dancing act that is a sure applause winner.

Bel and Redell in a Novelty Surprise, bid for the title of versatility inasmuch as they are jack of all trades and prove adept at all of them, they do tricks on Bicycle and unicycle, balancing feats on the wire a few feats of acrobatics, and a little dance of two for good measure.

Two Dainty Harmony Girls is the billing of Rose and Carroll new arrivals from the East with a repertoire of the very latest compositions, some of which were specially written for them.

The screen feature will be "The Price of a Party," a vivid drama of a beautiful butterfly who toyed with fire. The adventures and misadventures of a girl alone in a big city. Hope Hampton, Harrison Ford, Dagmar Golowsky, Arthur Edmund Carew and Mary A. Tor head a brilliant cast of players.

Other features on the same program include "Dry Blues" roving comedy; "Kinograms" built like a newspaper; Carl Richards' California Orchestra; Larry E. Canelo, at the piano; and a variety of other acts.

"Forever" Film Offered Today at The Richmond

One of the most elaborate and thrilling motion pictures produced in many months is "Forever," a George Fitzmaurice production for Paramount, starring Elsie Ferguson and Wallace Reid, which will be the feature de luxe at the Richmond theatre today only.

Headed by the stars named, the cast in this photoplay is the most imposing ever gathered for a Paramount picture with the possible exception of "The Affairs of Anatol." Elliott Dexter, Montagu Love, George Foxcroft and Paul McAllister play the principle supporting male roles. The two feminine parts, next in importance to the "Duchess of Towers," which is Miss Ferguson's role, are played by Barbara Dean and Dolores Cassinelli.

A half dozen or more youngsters are seen in the first part of the picture. Little Gogo Pasquer, who grows up to be "Peter Liberton," is played by Charles Eaton, eight years old. Nell Duck, an eight-year-old edition of Elsie Ferguson, is "Mimi," the little girl who becomes the "Duchess of Towers" later in the story.

The opening scenes for the picture were filmed in a most artistic setting, a French garden at Passy, a suburb of Paris. All four seasons of the year are shown in the garden, opening with the Springtime.

Sour Stomach Is Caused by Acids

Stay off the damp ground, avoid exposure, keep tea dry, cut out sweets of any kind for a while, drink lots of water and above all take a spoonful of Jad Salts occasionally to help keep down acid and toxic acids.

Rheumatism is one of the most toxic, evil acid, which are generated in the bowels and absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood and cast it out on the urine. The pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of this impurity. In damp and chilly, cold weather the skin pores are closed, thus forcing the kidneys to do double work; they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate this poison, which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles, causing stiffness, soreness and pain called rheumatism.

At the first twinge of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; put a tablespoon in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is helpful to neutralize acidity, remove body waste, aid to stimulate the kidneys, thus helping to find the blood of these diuretic poison.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and is made from the acid, citric and lemon juices, combined with other ingredients with excellent results. Thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism.

Richmond Knights Templar Invited To Drill Contest

A special invitation has been extended by the Inter-City Drill Corps committee to the Richmond Commandery Knights Templar to attend the next competitive drill which will be held in the civic auditorium in San Francisco on Thursday evening, February 5, according to announcement made yesterday by C. D. Horner, eminent commander of the Richmond commandery.

Richmond Commandery is not expected to compete, but following the competition a battalion front will be formed and Richmond has been asked to be present with as many Sir Knights as can be mustered, and with the Richmond colors participate in the battalion review.

DRILL WEDNESDAY EVENING
Wednesday evening, January 28, will be reserved by the Richmond Commandery for drill purposes preparatory to appearing in San Francisco. It is hoped that as many Sir Knights as possible will reserve the evening and devote it to encouraging the drill work and to warranting the consideration which the Inter-City Drill Corps committee has shown by extending this special invitation.

Two nights in the near future have been set apart for Richmond Commandery duties: the night of January 28 for drill and the night of February 5 for the San Francisco function.

STEVE LADIES AID MEETS AT PARLORS

An exceptionally well attended meeting of the Ladies Aid of the Stege Presbyterian church was held yesterday in the church parlors. The hostesses of the afternoon were Mesdames Anna and Miriam Gundy and tea was served by them. Talented members of the society gave a pleasing impromptu program and a delightful time was had.

MASONS TO CONFER DEGREE ON MONDAY

The eighth degree will be conferred by Richmond Masons on Monday evening, January 19, in the Scottish Rite auditorium in Oakland. Those who will take part in the ceremony are S. Morehouse, M. V. King, J. D. Bignall, C. A. Green, W. S. Pierce, S. E. Pierce and L. M. Johnson.

STEGE CHURCH ELDERS ARE ENTERTAINED

The elders of the Stege Presbyterian church and their wives were delightfully entertained last night at the home of Rev. and Mrs. George Gilchrist.

Various kinds of games and contests occupied the guests throughout the evening and refreshments were served at a late hour by the hostess.

ALLIED WAR VETERANS AUXILIARIES TO MEET

There will be a meeting of the allied war veterans auxiliaries council being formed in this city, in Richmond hall at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon, January 19. All members of the G. A. R. Spanish War Veterans, Veterans of Foreign Wars and American Legion Auxiliaries are urged to attend.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF MARRIAGE IS MADE

W. Dewey Galley of Richmond and Miss Althea C. Pearsons of Oakland, without taking any of their friends or relatives into their confidence, quietly slipped away to Hollister on New Year's eve and were married.

The many friends of the groom here will be pleased to hear of the ceremony, because he has lived here since boyhood, attended the schools here, and has been employed by the Standard Oil company since 1916. He is the son of Mrs. E. D. Hubbard, formerly of Richmond and now of Albany.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. R. S. Lucas of Oakland, where she attended school and is a winsome and attractive young lady who will be welcome to Richmond by the many friends of the groom. The new home will be in the Myrtle Apartments here.

CIVIC CENTER CLUB WILL MEET TUESDAY

A meeting of the Civic Center club will be held on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. K. A. Cole, 653 Thirtieth street. All members are requested to be present.

Scores Pay Last Tribute at Rites For A. S. Ormsby

Scores of persons from all walks of life, associates of the bar and fellow members of fraternal organizations yesterday paid final tribute to the memory of Alfred S. Ormsby, Martinez attorney.

Gathered at Masonic hall about a flower bedecked casket they heard the impressive funeral rites of the Masonic order conducted by officers of Alamo Lodge of Walnut Creek. As the last words of the service were intoned a quartet sang "Good Night" and a beautiful Isle of Somewhere. There followed a solo by D. L. Parson with. The quartet was composed of Mrs. W. H. Hanlon, Miss Eileen Edelman, John Reid and George Messer.

Included among the mourners were members of the Masons, Moose, Elks, Eastern Star and Odd Fellows. Honorary pallbearers represented the Contra Costa Bar Association and county officials while the active pallbearers were drawn from members of Richmond Lodge of Elks.

An escort of Sir Knights from the Templar was formed by H. Ellis, W. F. Fraser, William Sobey, William Heber, Harry Beale, Lou W. Schroeder.

Many came from distant points to be at the services and there were many beautiful floral offerings to attest the man's extended friendship. At the conclusion of the rites at Masonic hall the body was taken by the Brunser funeral parlors to Alamo cemetery for interment.

Besides the widow, Alice Ormsby, and the son and daughter, Walter and Marion Ormsby of Martinez, Judge Ormsby leaves to mourn his death a mother residing at Walnut Creek, and two brothers, Arthur Ormsby of Walnut Creek, and Dr. Ormsby of Newark.

Mysterious Telephone Call

James A. McCracken, Jr., a son living at 2032 Nineteenth street, Oakland, appeared on the scene while the police were investigating. He said that he had received a telephone message from his father's brother, Ralph, living in San Francisco, stating that he had heard that the elder McCracken had not appeared for work. He could not account for his father's disappearance or for the telephone message.

McCracken is said to have at one time been a well known citizen of Red Bluff, where his wife now lives. It is said that he had refused to live with any member of his family.

Police Inspectors William Smith and William J. Smith, putting men who are said to have been McCracken's only associates during the time he has been at Government Island.

DAMAGE SUIT RESULTS FROM GROOM INJURY

An echo of the accident that nearly cost the life of Morton E. Groom on May 12, 1921, at that time county traffic officer, came yesterday with the filing of a complaint by the State Corporation Insurance Fund against E. J. Lyons.

The complaint recited that Groom was patrolling the state highway between Concord and Walnut Lyons on the date recent and that Lyons was operating his automobile in such a careless and reckless manner that he crashed into Groom's motorcycle with such force as to throw Groom to the pavement, seriously injuring him. As a result of the accident, Groom was in the hospital here for several months.

BLouses FOR PALM BEACH

The simpler a blouse this season, the smarter it is. Hence the chic severity of the model at the upper left hand corner of the group pictured here. The model can be developed in either hip or knee length, to be worn over a separate skirt or a costume slip. In crepe satin it is very smart, 2 1/2 yards 36-inch material being required for medium size.

Borrowed from the college girls is the center design in crepe de Chine with broken stripes. It features the high neck with collar of contrasting material and long, close-fitting sleeves. The front is slashed almost to the waistline and a vestee of plain material inserted. Medium size requires 3 yards 36-inch crepe and 1/4 yard ribbon for the vestee 590 Million Dollars and 30 Years Experience Built The NEW CHEVROLET!

For Economy—Endurance—Power

The General Motors Engineers Each Year Pounded Out the Weak Points Until Today Stands Their Masterpiece--the New Chevrolet. You can Be Easily Convinced that a Company as Big and Strong as the General Motor Company, the Builders of Cadillac, Buick, Chevrolet and Other Cars Can Not Afford to Give the Public Only the Best, Dollar for Dollar.

A Few of the Major Improvements

THAT HAVE MADE CHEVROLET the greatest DOLLAR for DOLLAR value in the Automobile world for years to come.

A NEW IMPROVED dry disc clutch completely enclosed, requiring no attention.

A NEW transmission that makes shifting gears so easy that a child can handle.

NEW semi-elliptic springs with 54-inch rear spring under-slung and made of Chrome Vanadium steel.

NEW REAR-END construction, Larger and stronger axles and gears, 10 more teeth in master gear and 6 more in pinion. One piece press steel housing, banjo type. The best that money can build.

NEW designed radiator. Shell is made of the new rustless Air-plane metal, giving a nickle effect.

NEW improvements on motor. More horse-power per pound than any car built. Crank shaft is 4 pounds heavier. Much larger main and connecting rod bearings. Shorter manifold and more water jackets eliminating any danger of the burning of exhaust valves. Valves and rocker arms entirely enclosed.

NEW improved braking system. Large 11-inch steel drums. A simple brake equalizing device is now used to insure equal pressure on both drums at the same time.

NEW improved semi-reversible worm and gear type steering construction. Steering is now just 1-3 easier and it is also impossible for the driver to feel the road shocks through the steering wheel.

GENERAL QUALITY FEATURES that can be found only in cars selling for a much higher price than CHEVROLET.

Triple DUCO finish on all models. Cowl parking lights, refinements in upholstery and fittings. Balloon Tires and Disc wheels standard equipment on Sedan and Coupe. Balloon Tires also standard equipment on Coach.

WESLEY METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Corner Ninth and Nevins; C. G. Lindemann, minister.
The people of the city of Richmond will be pleased to know that the choir and orchestra of Wesley church are a link to repeat the Christmas cantata, "The Dawn of Christmas," at the 7:30 o'clock Sunday evening service. This is an exceptionally fine piece of Christmas music and was so well rendered on December 28 that numerous requests have been made for its repetition, hence Sunday night's program. If you want a good seat you will need to come early.
At the 11 o'clock service the pastor will speak on the subject, "The Commandments of God, and the Tradition of Men." This sermon deals with some matters of vital importance not only to the Christian but to those who are not followers of the Christ. There has been a very marked increase in attendance at these services.
The Epworth league meets in the social rooms of the church every Sunday evening at 6:30. All young people welcome.
Prayer meeting Wednesday evening at 7:30, subject "To Every Man His Work," Mark 13:31.
The choir meets for practice Thursday evening at 7:30. A full attendance is desired.
On Friday night at the family night program the pastor will lead the community sing and immediately following the sing the feature picture, "Held to Answer" will be shown. You will always find a cordial welcome to our services.

GRACE LUTHERAN CHURCH
Red Men's hall, Eleventh and Nevins. S. T. Hines, Ph. D., minister; E. J. Evans, superintendent of the Sunday school.
Sunday school begins at 10 o'clock. Much depends upon the parents and teachers in securing faithful attendance. To be present every Sunday aids the memory in keeping the great truths which are taught in the lessons, that they may be "a lamp unto our feet and a light unto our path." The lesson subject is "The Lord's Supper," which was instituted at the Passover Feast on the night on which our Lord was betrayed. This supper is to be kept in remembrance of the great sacrifice of Christ for the sins of the whole world.
At the 11 o'clock service, the sermon by the pastor will be on the subject, "What is a Christian?" The disciples were called Christians first in Antioch in Syria.
A Christian should have Christ for an example and should love Christ, and also show forth love for the Bible, for His people, and with the distinct purpose to save their souls. All this should be manifested in prayer, believing. A Christian should be known by his profession. He should have his hope of salvation on what the Lord hath done for him. This will be manifested through repentance, and faith toward God in a good life.
A Christian relationship to God and man will be shown in his attitude to divine things relative to man's highest good. Not being "weary in well-doing." A servant of God for time and eternity.
He will be a Christian in character, with the stamp of righteousness upon him. His mark and goal will be Christ Jesus. He will make it a rule to wear the whole armor of God. This will give him confidence in the hope of victory. The Lord's requirement in giving unto His cause, "as the Lord hath prospered him" will become his delight. In the light of divine revelation are you a Christian?

Luther League at 6:30 p. m. Topic: "The League's Part in Our Church Program." Robert Walter, leader of the league. Let each one have a part in working out the program of the church.
A standing welcome awaits everyone at all these services.

OAKLAND KLAN MEMBERS SUED FOR $20,000

OAKLAND, Jan. 17. In the Superior court here today T. S. Moodie, King Kleagle, and Grant Titan of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of Province No. 3 of the state of California, filed suit against eighteen former members of Oakland Klan No. 9 for $20,000 damages. The complaint recites that the eighteen former members of the Oakland Klan are "falsely and fraudulently representing themselves to be a legally chartered local Klan," and in possession of "large sums of money," which should be turned over to the national organization.

The defendants named by Moodie include J. H. McLafferty, Jr., Leon C. Francis, H. F. Shaefer, A. J. Brooks, C. N. Murry, W. H. Parker, D. D. Jones, C. L. Gasnau, C. W. Stewart, C. C. Cannon, Mark Master, Rev. Kenyon, Ed. L. Arnest, H. McAvoy, Dick Pratt, J. J. Coons, C. D. Tudor and C. W. Taber.

The complaint alleges that on November 29, 1924, the charter of the Oakland Klan was suspended because of violations of rules and regulations of the Klan as laid down by the national organization. In spite of the charter suspension, the defendants have held and are holding regular meetings as klansmen in Oakland, using the ritual and regalia of the organization in the initiation of new members in defiance of their suspension.

Moodie, as representative of the national organization, asks the court to enter judgment of $20,000 damages against the defendants.

In addition to his prayer for damages, Moodie seeks restraining orders to prevent the defendants from further use of the name, "Ku Klux Klan," or any of its ramifications, and seeks an order which will compel the defendants to turn over all money, books, regalia, books of instructions and other property now used by the defendants.

The suit was filed by Attorney Perry Brinn of Torrance, Los Angeles county, on behalf of Moodie.

Recently Granted by U. S. Patent Office

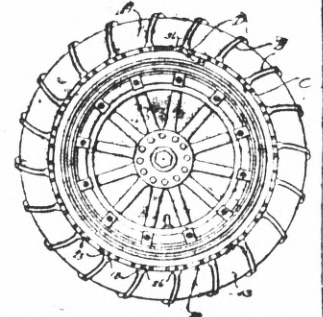

Compiled Weekly for this paper by CLARENCE A. O'BRIEN, Registered Patent Attorney, Washington, D. C.

Patent No. 1,520,879. AUTO LUNCH BOX. Harry Milne.

In an auto lunch box, an elongated box having a lid closing down on the sides and ends, hinges secured to the front wall of the box, an extensible table secured to said hinges and formed of inner and outer sections hinged to one another, and supporting brackets formed of a plurality of struts having offset ends fitting into corresponding sockets at the box bottom and inwardly extending strips pivotally secured to the outer ends of the struts and pivoted to an inner section of the extensible table and in collapsing the said table adapted to be swung around lengthwise with the box.

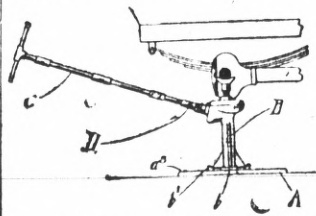

Patent No. 1,521,140. ANTI-SKID CHAIN. Frank O. Walby.

In an anti-skid device, the combination of a plurality of U-shaped traction elements adapted to straddle a tire with their arms extending toward a wheel rim and terminating in flat parallel end portions, and chain devices for the ends of said traction elements each embodying links pivotally connected intermediate their ends to the flat ends of the traction elements and formed of pairs of plates pivotally connected upon opposite sides of the flat ends of the arms of said traction elements, and connecting links each formed of a single plate and having their ends pivotally mounted between the ends of the links which are pivotally connected to the flat ends of the arms of the traction elements.

Patent No. 1,520,989. AUXILIARY BASE FOR JACKS. Walter H. Webster.

1. The combination of a jack, a crank, a coupling adapted to lock the crank and the jack, and an auxiliary base for the jack adapted to be moved with the jack when the crank is used to pull the jack toward the operator, and to be detached therefrom when the jack is moved in the opposite direction.

INCOME TAX

This is a series of income tax stories based on changes in tax legislation as embodied in the Revenue Act of 1924. The reduction in rates, 25 per cent credit on "earned income" and other benefits of the new law as they effect the average tax payer, will be fully set forth. The stories will be of informative value to persons required to file returns of income for the year 1924.

INCOME TAX IN A NUTSHELL.
WHO? Single persons who had net income of $1,000 or more or gross income of $5,000 or more, and married couples who had net income of $2,500 or more or gross income of $5,000 or more must file returns.

WHEN? The filing period is from January 1 to March 15, 1925.

WHERE? Collector of Internal Revenue for the district in which the person lives or has his principal place of business.

HOW? Instructions on Form 1040A and Form 1040; also the law and regulations.

WHAT? Two percent normal tax on the first $4,000 of net income in excess of the personal exemptions and credits. Four per cent normal tax on the next $4,000. Six per cent normal tax on the balance of net income. Surtax on net income in excess of $10,000.

NO. 4

The revenue act of 1924 provides that the status of a taxpayer relative to the amount of his personal exemptions shall be determined by apportionment in accordance with the number of months the taxpayer was single married, or the head of a family. Under the preceding act the amount of the exemption to which the taxpayer was entitled was de-

PREPARE SITE FOR LOCATION OF TERMINAL

Captain H. P. Lauritzen of the Richmond Navigation and Improvement company, is at present engaged in having the Third street channel dredged through property that he purchased a year ago. Captain Lauritzen plans to move his shipping terminal and building material business this spring to a point not far distant from Cutting boulevard, where the dredging is being done. It is planned to locate the new terminal and building material plant near the boulevard.

The shipping business of the company has been growing steadily, in keeping with the building material business. The channel is being made of sufficient width and depth to accommodate the freight boats that Captain Lauritzen operates across San Francisco bay and up the Sacramento river. It is expected that the increased facilities afforded by the new site will increase the business of the company. The present site of the company on the Cutting canal will be abandoned.

Through the efforts of the Richmond Chamber of Commerce Captain Lauritzen has leased a part of his property to the Richmond Construction and Engineering company, which is building a shipbuilding plant on the property. The new company expects to begin the construction of speed boats and other small craft as soon as their plant is erected. Extensive improvements are planned by Captain Lauritzen for his property.

NEW BOOKS ON BOOK SHELF AT LIBRARY HERE

"Worthy books are not companions—they are solitudes. We lose ourselves in them and all our cares."—Bailey.

There are many such books which just have been added to the new book shelf at the public library this week. Below is a list containing a wide range of types, some of which may help to banish dull care, while others will act as practical guides in everyday affairs.

Gilliam—Laugh It Off, 1924.

A humorous attempt to dispel fear and gloom by "laughing it off," and by "setting up in their stead, intelligence, courage and faith."

Brimmer—Motor Campercraft, 1923.

A practical little book based on actual experiences of the author, covering the whole field of camping equipment, together with an automobile highway map of the United States.

Quinn—Beautiful Mexico, 1924.

Here, Mr. Quinn endeavors to emphasize the lovelier side of Mexico, "the beauty of her scenery and the legends of her Indians," and forgets for the time, the unfortunate war torn country that Mexico has been for so long.

Hale—The Depths Of The Universe, 1921.

"A short-lived account of progress in astronomy since medieval times." Observations and discoveries made at Mount Wilson are presented for the most part.

Collins—The Story Of Canned Foods, 1924.

"Imagine! A world without an old tin can anywhere." James H. Collins gives a popular account of the canning industry from its remote beginnings to the splendid scientific stage it has reached today. He makes it an entertaining subject by intermingling facts with amusing anecdotes.

Salisbury—The Sea Gypsy, 1924.

The adventures and wanderings of the 88 ton yacht, the "Wisdom II." Known as the "Sea gypsy," she voyaged half around the world, remote islands of the South Seas, and thence back to Italy, where she finally met with disaster, just as her owners were planning another voyage.

Baker—Cancer, 1924.

"An exhaustive book on the cause and prevention of cancer, written in plain and untechnical language."

Rice—A Pilgrim's Scrip, 1924.

A collection of poems for world wanderers relating impressions and travels in far away countries.

MacBride—An Introduction To The Study Of Heredity, 1924.

The author "summarizes the amount of present knowledge which governs heredity, giving a sample of each type of research in that field."

Gilbert—The Prince De Ligne, 1924.

A picture of the French court in the days before the Revolution, based primarily on the personal memoirs of the prince.

Currier—How To Keep Well, 1924.

For many years, the author of this book was a practitioner of medicine and surgery. His book is "encyclopedia in scope and contain descriptions of the most ordinary diseases known to man, together with methods for prevention."

Collins—Our American Kings, 1924.

A book of portraits, giving sketches of the present governors of fourteen states and presenting their home life, appearance and hobbies.

Faris—The Romances Of Forgotten Towns, 1924.

Curious stories of the founding and growth, as well as the final disappearance of many of our nation's towns and cities. About forty stories which present American history in a fascinating manner.

Ives—Home Conveniences, 1924.

More comfort, better traction, reduced vibration, longer life for the car, higher average speed on trips—these are a few of the many advantages of Diamond Balloon equipment. And there are thirty years of quality manufacturing experience back of Diamond Balloons which is assurance of their high value and final economy.

See us about Balloon tires.

Diamond Balloons

An attempt to "set forth in a brief way, some of the things that make for comfort about the home and to aid the householder in the selection of appliances for both town and country."

McGovern—To Lhasa in Disguise, 1924.

Dr. McGovern, a lecturer of the Royal Asiatic society, after many attempts, finally succeeded in sufficiently disguising himself as to make a secret expedition into mysterious Tibet. He gives an "adequate description of the great transformation which has taken place in Tibet in the last few years," together with an interesting account of the beliefs and customs of the people.

LOS ANGELES—Southern California Gas Company announces $4,000,000 appropriation for improvements during next twelve months.

60 Days In Jail For Intoxication

Joe Hacke of Richmond was lodged in the county jail yesterday to serve a 60-day sentence, which had formerly been suspended. Hacke was charged with being drunk on October 27 and at that time sentenced to a fine of $10 and 60 days in jail. The jail sentence was suspended but he was arrested again Friday on a similar offense and was committed on the first charge.

Ground was broken for the new clubhouse of the Fairmeade Golf club Saturday afternoon. The structure will cost $65,000 and it is considered that it will be one of the finest on the coast when completed.

Once you've seen the FAIRMEADE GOLF CLUB you will better understand its popularity

MANY who have joined the Fairmeade Club, did so as the result of a brief trip to the club grounds.

Q No verbal description, no printed information could do, for them or for you, what an hour on the actual property can accomplish.

Q Stand on the clubhouse site with the magnificent sweep of water and mountainous country spread out below you,—stroll over the course and see how perfectly its contours are suited to good golf,—feel the spring of the turf down the fairways,—visualize a spacious clubhouse on the hilltop. And realize that all this is easy to reach, easy to afford, and will soon be available for use.

Q Then, and only then, can you fully appreciate why Fairmeade memberships are so eagerly being sought.

How to reach Fairmeade

Follow the Sacramento Highway four miles north beyond Richmond till you reach the big electric "Fairmeade" sign.
